

I would like to see television that has no programing that shows pornografic, or Howard sterns type pictures over the air that is not payed for the view.How can you sleep knowing that other families have to protect the children because you won't prevent this smut.